WATERPROOFING, and JOEL REICH,

Defendants.

-----X

THE HONORABLE ANDREW E. KRAUSE, U.S.M.J.

Pursuant to the Court's order issued on July 11, 2023, by August 7, 2023, Defendants The Barrier Group Inc. and Sub Enterprises, Inc. d/b/a Drip Drop Waterproofing ("Barrier Group") were either to retain new counsel or seek an extension of time in which to do so. See ECF No. 65. To date, no notice of appearance has been filed by new counsel for Barrier Group, nor has Barrier Group sought an extension of time in which to retain new counsel. The Court held a status conference on August 10, 2023; no attorney appeared at the conference on behalf of Barrier Group, nor did any corporate representative of Barrier Group appear to provide any other update regarding the company's effort to find counsel.

Accordingly, as stated on the record at the August 10, 2023 status conference, Plaintiff may seek entry of a default judgment against Barrier Group using the following procedures:

1. Prepare a proposed Order to Show Cause for default judgment and make the Order returnable before Magistrate Judge Andrew E. Krause in Courtroom 250 of the United States Courthouse, 300 Quarropas Street, White Plains, New York. Leave blanks for the Court to fill in: (i) the date and time at which the Order to Show Cause will be heard; (ii) the date by which the moving party must serve the Order to Show Cause and supporting documents on the non-moving party; and (iii) the date by which the non-moving party must file opposition papers.

2. The following documents must accompany the Order to Show Cause:

A. an attorney's affidavit or declaration:

1. attaching:

- a) copies of the pleadings; and
- b) a copy of the affidavit of service of the original summons and complaint;

and

2. setting forth:

- a) why a default judgment is appropriate;
- b) the proposed statement of damages and the basis for each element of damages including interest, attorney's fees, and costs; and
- c) legal authority for why an inquest would be unnecessary (if applicable);

B. a proposed default judgment, including damage and interest calculations;

- 3. Electronically file the proposed Order to Show Cause using the filing event PROPOSED ORDERS and the document PROPOSED ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WITHOUT EMERGENCY RELIEF. Electronically file the following documents as separate ECF filing events: (i) the attorney's AFFIDAVIT or DECLARATION in support; and (ii) the PROPOSED DEFAULT JUDGMENT using the filing event found under PROPOSED ORDERS.
- 4. After Magistrate Judge Krause signs the Order to Show Cause, it will be docketed. The moving party must then serve a copy of the Order to Show Cause, and the supporting documents, on the defendant as directed in the Order to Show Cause.
- 5. Proof of service on the potentially defaulting defendant of a copy of the Order to Show Cause and supporting documents must be electronically filed three (3) business days in advance of the return date.

The Order to Show Cause is to be filed by no later than September 27, 2023.

Chambers staff will send a copy of this order to the individual pro se Defendant by email, and the Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to mail a copy of this order to the pro se Defendant.
